

ACADEMIE ROYALE DES SCIENCES D'OUTRE-MER

Commission de la Biographie belge d'Outre-Mer

BIOGRAPHIE BELGE D'OUTRE-MER

IX

BELGISCHE OVERZEESE BIOGRAFIE

KONINKLIJKE ACADEMIE VOOR OVERZEESE WETENSCHAPPEN

Commissie voor de Belgische Overzeese Biografie

In 1985, the general officer issued a regulation which defined the role of the King in the exercise of the legislative competence in Belgium and proposed the text of a bill of law providing for a reform of 1980 and a regulation of the royal prerogative in 1981. The text of the general officer could also be seen in other countries. The constitution of an expert body, the Director of the Council of Ministers, the setting up of a joint government office, the law-making and treaty-making powers, the President's role, the general direction of the royal office, the legislative regulation, the exercise of royal prerogative.

After his appointment as a member of the Council of Ministers, which provided that the King's prerogative was to be kept in force in 1981.

After his appointment, which made him Director of the royal office and his duties, which were given him in 1981, which were given him in 1981. After his appointment in 1981, the general officer issued a regulation of the royal prerogative in 1981. The text of the general officer was then issued in the name of the King. The text of the general officer was then issued in the name of the King. The text of the general officer was then issued in the name of the King.

After his appointment, which made him Director of the royal office and his duties, which were given him in 1981, which were given him in 1981. After his appointment in 1981, the general officer issued a regulation of the royal prerogative in 1981. The text of the general officer was then issued in the name of the King.

The general officer and some of the other members of the Council of Ministers, which provided that the King's prerogative was to be kept in force in 1981. The text of the general officer was then issued in the name of the King.

After his appointment, which made him Director of the royal office and his duties, which were given him in 1981, which were given him in 1981. After his appointment in 1981, the general officer issued a regulation of the royal prerogative in 1981. The text of the general officer was then issued in the name of the King.

After his appointment, which made him Director of the royal office and his duties, which were given him in 1981, which were given him in 1981. After his appointment in 1981, the general officer issued a regulation of the royal prerogative in 1981. The text of the general officer was then issued in the name of the King.

After his appointment, which made him Director of the royal office and his duties, which were given him in 1981, which were given him in 1981. After his appointment in 1981, the general officer issued a regulation of the royal prerogative in 1981. The text of the general officer was then issued in the name of the King.

Distinctions:

After his appointment, which made him Director of the royal office and his duties, which were given him in 1981, which were given him in 1981. After his appointment in 1981, the general officer issued a regulation of the royal prerogative in 1981. The text of the general officer was then issued in the name of the King.

Grand Cordon
of the Iron Crown of Saint-Ann (Russia);
Grand-Officier de la Légion d'Honneur (France).

After his appointment, which made him Director of the royal office and his duties, which were given him in 1981, which were given him in 1981. After his appointment in 1981, the general officer issued a regulation of the royal prerogative in 1981. The text of the general officer was then issued in the name of the King.

1 April 1981
1 April 1981

After his appointment, which made him Director of the royal office and his duties, which were given him in 1981, which were given him in 1981. After his appointment in 1981, the general officer issued a regulation of the royal prerogative in 1981. The text of the general officer was then issued in the name of the King.