WAR AGAINST MUSSULMANS.

All the Mussulman villages on their way—some to dig—have been razed, and most of the inhabitants have been brutally murdered.

Unless something is done to force the Armenians to withdraw their troops, war will be inevitable. This aggression on the part of the Armenians is not only criminal, but it is also very foolish.

Armenia is unfortunate in that the Dashnakist party is in power. This is a terrorist, revolutionary organization, which for many years past has deliberately incited the Armenian people to attack the Mussulmans.

All the Mussulman villages on their way—nine to date—have been ruined, and most of the inhabitants have been inhumanly massacred.

Unless something is done to force the Armenians to withdraw their troops, war will be inevitable. This aggression on the part of the Armenians is not only criminal, but it is also very foolish.

Armenia is unfortunate in that the Dash-nakzutan party is in power. This is a terrorist, revolutionary organisation, which for many years past has deliberately incited the Armenian people to attack the Mussulmans.
